can tell your friends about Jesus. You can teach them songs about Jesus. They can see you behaving in a Christ-like manner. Let Him have center stage in your life, and God will show you other ways you can serve. This story about the Ascension can be found in the Bible in Acts 1:9-11. An Ascension of Jesus PowerPoint slideshow featuring billowing clouds with a ray of light bursting from behind a banner is overlaid on top of the clouds with the wording Ascension of Christ and a scripture title from Mark 16:19. We can't treat Jesus like Socrates, Gandhi, or Confucius. The Ascension is the final proof that we are dealing with more than a man. All the Bible says about who Jesus is makes little sense without the Ascension. The main events surrounding the Ascension of Jesus are found in Acts Chapter 1. There are also comments in the Gospels we can read which give more information about the event when Jesus died. Many of his promises could have been considered lies the apostles certainly could not see how He would, what Jesus left behind Acts 1:6-11.
